November 12th 2020: Memoires of a Wildcat

Mary A. Tidlund had been the President and CEO of Trophy Resources, which rolled assets into Williston Wildcatters Oil Corp, a company traded on the Toronto Stock Exchange. When the fortunes of Tidlund's company turned, it was time to turn to philanthropy. She started an international philanthropic venture — the Mary A. Tidlund Charitable Foundation — which was responsible for ultimately, more than 90 projects in 29 countries. The philosophy of unstoppable, unlimited love was instilled in Tidlund from an early age, and all of this is captured in her new book MEMOIRES OF A WILDCAT, Unadoptabl

Mary Tidlund

Mary A. Tidlund is an entrepreneur, philanthropist, and a new author. In 1990, Mary co-founded and was president and CEO of numerous corporations, including Williston Wildcatters Oil Corporation, a public oil and gas exploration and service company that pioneered horizontal drilling. In 1998, Mary transformed herself, moving from oil to philanthropy with the founding of the Mary A. Tidlund Charitable Foundation. The global NGO worked in 29 countries for 19 years with over 90 programs focusing on empowering women and children to make lasting changes in health, education, and the alleviation of poverty. Currently, Mary is a board member of numerous public corporations and NGOs and is an insp
