“Not all who wander are lost.” – J.R.R. Tolkien, The Fellowship of the Ring Many midlife women feel lost and stuck in fear and uncertainty. If that sounds like you, don't worry. You have your whole life ahead of you, and today's guests are going to help and inspire you to find your way and your superpowers. There are many reasons why women feel so lost. The top ten are: 1. We're people pleasers, putting everyone and everything else first 2. We've stopped listening to our intuition 3. We're too busy to find our purpose or follow a passion 4. We're distracted and experiencing cognitiv

Featured Guests

Shannon Grissom

Shannon Grissom didn't discover painting until she was 33, but once she discovered this hidden passion, she was hooked and driven. By 1999, Shannon was able to leave her day job and began to create art as a full-time business. At 46, Shannon self-published her children's book Monkey Made of Sockies, along with a line of licensed merchandise, including a coloring book and the popular Monkey Made of Sockies golf club headcovers that have been carried on tour by several LPGA pros. Shannon is an award-winning artist, television producer/host, author, and songwriter, and she just launched an online creativity school called Painterly.
