January 25th 2010: "Modern Day Persecution of Christians in the Middle East."

James Younan and Jamal Bashara chart the persecution of Christians throughout the ages up to the modern day. With shocking statistics currently showing Christians representing only some 10% of the Middle East's population, this program examines the deep divisions in the region. In passionate and at time heated discussion a plea becomes evident in demanding different approach and philosophy from occupying powers and conflicting factions in countries Iraq, Iran and Egypt.
