May 25th 2010: When a loved one chooses home to die: how the family caregiver and the family doctor work together

Dr Sandy Buchman is an experienced family physician specializing in home-based, end-of-life care. Don Fenn is Publisher of the Family Caregiver Newsmagazine, which he founded after 11 years as family caregiver for his parents with Alzheimer's disease and cancer. Dr Buchman describes his medical practice. Mr Fenn highlights his experience as family caregiver. They talk about the discussion within a family that occurs when it is confronted with the option of the family member's dying at home. They point to important matters that should be considered by the family. They explore the organization o
