Barbara Burnett is Executive Director, Community Management, with Seniors For Seniors. She describes her career, her work and her experience with family caregiving. She discusses the challenges for seniors, and explains what makes these so challenging. She describes how seniors' support helps seniors and their family caregivers meet the challenges involved in living at home, living a long way away, or living in long-term care facilities. She talks about aging at home and tell us how well the needs of seniors are communicated to healthcare planners from programs like these, and what she sees as
