November 23rd 2011: The Sacred Sphere with Paul Burley

There is a cosmic consciousness that, through use of symbols, allows us to comprehend and communicate our relationship with Earth, the Universe and life itself. This is a common thread binding the fabric of all mankind. Paul Burley will discuss his book, "The Sacred Sphere" which describes the history of the circle as a sacred two dimensional representation of the sphere, symbolizing mankind's relationships with each other, the world and the cosmos. Paul has a specific interest in archaeological and ethnographic analysis of prehistoric America and the support and protection of Native American
