Real Recognition Radio Archives Available January 10th 2012: Humanizing Healthcare

What are some of the most pressing challenges as an executive in the health care industry? On the next Real Recognition Radio program, Roy Saunderson and S. Max Brown will be speaking with R. Alan Gleghorn, Chief Executive Officer at Christie Clinic, one of the largest physician-owned, multi-specialty group medical practices in Illinois. Alan has more than 30 years of progressive health care experience. At Christie, he has led a cultural transformation, committed to developing strong leaders throughout the organization and initiated the clinic's lean journey. How does culture impac
