June 26th 2012: Starfish, the Making of a Movie about Family Caregiving and Community Support

Bill Clark, a British movie maker, talks about Starfish, his movie of family caregiving and community support. He describes his background, career, current work in movie-making, and experience of family caregiving. He explains what Starfish is about, the stage its production has reached, and the future he sees for it. He discusses its background, where the name comes from, what led him to make it, and the support he receives in making it. He explains what's meant by 'back story', what this is for Starfish, and what made it so appealing to him. He talks about the back stories of the people whos
