Access Consciousness Presents Beyond Saying Thank You Archives Available December 4th 2012: What Is Controversy?

Is there more to controversy than you've imagined? When we don't function within the normal limitations of this reality, when we don't do "what we should, when we should, how we should", it's considered by many to be controversial. What if controversy is being a leader going where there's no path laid out yet; the space where we deviate from the norm to create something that has not existed before? What if choosing to be controversial, to function outside the norm, can be used to create greater awareness, more choice and different possibilities than you ever thought was possible? What contri
