

EMPOWERMENT

Awakening to Conscious Co-Creation Archives Available

January 23rd 2013: Bounce off the Walls-Land on your Feet with Merrie Lynn Ross

Merrie Lynn Ross is an award-winning filmmaker/writer/actress: Starring in over 35 TV/films from portraying Marion Davis in a 13-hour PBS mini-series, Julie Nixon (president's daughter) to day time's first comedienne, Emma Lutz, on ABC's 'General Hospital'- entertaining forty million viewers with her contagious giggle and outrageous antics. Merrie Lynn will discuss her refreshing book, "Bounce Off the Walls-Land on your Feet", which inspires energy shifts, morphing havoc and hassles into harmony and happiness. She uses outrageous humour to lift you on to your awakening spiraling journey, outwa

Read more

DOWNLOAD PDF

GET CODE

Tune in

Archives Available on VoiceAmerica 7th Wave Channel

EPISODE ON DEMAND

VIEW HOST PAGE

Featured Guest

Merrie Lynn Ross

Merrie Lynn Ross produced several films: Cult classic, "Class of 1994" starring Michael J.Fox, Perry King and Ms. Ross, the hit of Cannes Film Festival, winning best picture Academy of Horror and Science Fiction. "Bobby Jo and The Outlaw" with Lynda Carter and Merrie Lynn playing sisters, roused youth audiences, and led to Merrie Lynn's character on the "Wonder Woman" TV pilot. Ms. Ross founded MerrieWay Community and collaborated with film industry notables, philanthropists and corporate sponsors to bring arts and ethics back into our schools. She created "Morph America" and "Peace Smarts" curriculums that were honored by White House and President Clinton and recognized by President Bush. <

Read more

Share This Episode

Share On Facebook

Share On Twitter

Share On LinkedIn

Connect with VoiceAmerica

Download our mobile apps

Read what our hosts are writing about.

VOICEAMERICA BLOG