What are the Top 5 Challenges for Bosses? On the next episode of Real Recognition Radio, Roy Saunderson and S. Max Brown speak with Jill Geisler, author of Work Happy: What Great Bosses Know. Jill was among the country's first women to lead a major market TV newsroom when she became news director of WITI-TV in Milwaukee in 1978, at the age of 27. Joining the faculty of the Poynter Institute, she now heads the leadership and management programs. How do leaders create great workplaces when change is constant? Don't miss Rideau's next Real Recognition Radio program to learn the

Jill Geisler

Jill Geisler is the author of Work Happy: What Great Bosses Know. Jill was among the country's first women to lead a major market TV newsroom when she became news director of WITI-TV in Milwaukee in 1978, at the age of 27. She led an award-winning team for several decades before joining the faculty of the Poynter Institute where she now heads the leadership and management programs. Her "What Great Bosses Know" podcasts on iTunes U have been downloaded millions of times worldwide and have made her the coach to thousands of aspiring great bosses around the globe.
