March 14th 2013: Are Poor Presentation Skills
Hurting You?

A national survey conducted by USA Today revealed that most Americans feared speaking before a group of people more than they feared death. Most people fear speaking to a group of strangers and many others have a greater fear of speaking to a group of their peers. The irony is that public speaking is a necessity to sales, business, and many other professionals. Not being proficient in this skill will certainly cost you business opportunities, lost sales, and limit your ability to climb the corporate ladder. Tune in today's show to get invaluable tips and techniques on how to enhance your p
