March 25th 2013: The Courage to Love

While love is our greatest need; it is also very often our biggest fear. For those who have loved and feel like they have lost, we can very easily and even unconsciously close ourselves off from opening ourselves to love ever again. This show is designed to help individuals realize that there is no fear in real love. Join Melissa Brown once again as she tackles this very hot topic of love and relationships. Grab a pen and your journal as Melissa talks about life experiences that tend to shut us down to love; as well as what we can do to learn to trust, and love again. You will also learn
