March 14th 2013: From Psychotherapist to Psychic

Donnie Tash, a retired psychotherapist, experienced an NDE (Near Death Experience) when he lapsed into a coma after surgical complications. He remembers looking down at his body from high on the wall in the corner near the ceiling and needing to get back in it. He will share his story with us and talk about the psychic abilities he had when he recovered. His metamorphosis was from psychotherapist to psychic medium and from listening to the living to receiving information from the dead. We will compare and contrast his experience with that of Eben Alexander who wrote "Proof of Heaven: A Neurosu
