April 30th 2013: Artists Unite to Triumph over
Health Adversity

Christine Bayer, a watercolour, mixed media and acrylic artist, www.christinebayer.com, was diagnosed with multiple sclerosis in 2001. Jerry Ford, at age 28, had his life severely affected by the onset of multiple sclerosis. With Jerry, her husband, Christine founded www.artdetriomphe.org. They explain its work, the various creative arts that it supports and how it supports these. They discuss the ways in which it celebrates triumph over adversity and helps people recognize and understand their innate abilities and make the fullest use of them. They talk about the future of Art de Triomphe, and
