May 13th 2013: The Role of the Roman Catholic Faith in Family Caregiving

Angelo Minardi is a full-time Chaplain at All Saints Catholic Secondary School. He describes his personal story, his work as school Chaplain, and his experience of family caregiving. He discusses the ways in which the Roman Catholic faith supports family caregivers, including young people who have the role of family caregiver, who are members of a congregation of a Roman Catholic Church, who are members of its local community or, through an Archdiocese, who live in a major city. He explains how the Roman Catholic faith views parents' responsibilities to their children and children's responsibi
