May 14th 2013: The Power of Your Words

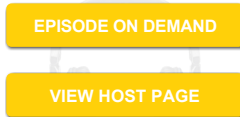

The words that we speak have an impact on our lives and the lives of others, especially children. Becoming conscious of words and how they contribute to our life and the lives of those around us can literally change the entire direction of our experiences. Our words are energy and that energy carries a vibration that through our own conscious awareness and choice can enhance life dramatically. While there are many components to this, our words are an ever present factor in the co-creation of our life. Join Bonnie Wirth and her guest Gina Sendef to learn more about "The Power of Your Words" an
