February 9th 2012: Create the Reality You Desire

Gary Spinell will discuss why some people continually achieve success when others can't and will explain why, even though the idea of creating your desired reality is not new, most of us have trouble understanding how to apply it in our everyday lives. Why do hard working people come up empty handed when it comes to creating what they want in life? Is there a secret we don't know? Does the energy created by your actions, thoughts and beliefs create your entire reality? If so, how do you manage this energy so it creates what you want instead of what you don't want? Want to know more? Don't miss
