July 17th 2013: Leadership with Horse Sense:
What Horses Teach Us About Being Leaders

Are you wondering what you need to do to take your business to the next level? What fears and doubts do you need to get past? Your business can only grow to the level that you've grown as a leader so it's imperative that your leadership evolve as well. If you're looking for a genuine assessment of your leadership skills, ask a horse. They're not interested in your title, your salary, who you know or what you drive. What matters to a horse is WHO YOU ARE, not what you are. Kathy Taylor will share with us how interacting with horses causes us to become aware of our thought and behavior patter

Featured Guest

Kathy Taylor

Kathy Taylor is president and CEO of HerdWise, where business owners and professionals go to transform their leadership and communication skills through interactions with horses. (Yes, horses.) A certified Equine Specialist with over 40 years of horse experience, Kathy was awarded the Innovator Spirit Award by the National Association of Women Business Owners for her unique and effective approach to professional and personal growth. She provides coaching, workshops and retreats for corporations, small businesses, universities, and non-profit organizations and was honored to speak recently at TEDxUTA. She is the author of the forthcoming book, Leadership with Horse Sense.
