This is a stirring testimony of how faith and confidence in the promises of God are keys to overcoming any attacks designed to destroy the believer's mental, physical and spiritual wellbeing. Our specialized journey begins and ends with God. Lucinda shares experiences in her journey to get to the other side of poverty, abuse, insecurity, fear and health challenges while revealing a resilient determination to succeed. There is not an age group that will not be touched by the experiences in this book. It will inspire and encourage readers of all ages to know that you can counter negative challe
