

Family Caregivers Unite!
Archives Available
August 6th 2013: Bail Hearings for Family Members with Serious Mental Illnesses

Tune in

Archives Available on
VoiceAmerica Variety Channel

EPISODE ON DEMAND

VIEW HOST PAGE

www.ccurrielawyer.ca, Catherine Currie is a lawyer who defends clients with mental health issues. Joanne Capozzi is Lead Crown (prosecutor) in Ontario's Mental Health Court and Drug Treatment Court. They discuss their work and explain bail hearings generally and how these are conducted for persons with serious mental illnesses. They describe the facts and factors that influence the criminal justice system's decisions about bail, and what happens to the person once the decision is made. They explain the implications for family caregivers of the criminal justice system's decisions, and the roles

Read more

DOWNLOAD PDF GET CODE

Featured Guests

Catherine E. Currie

Catherine E. Currie has been practising criminal law since she was called to the bar of Ontario in 1992. With a B.A. from Carleton University in Ottawa, she had a successful first career in managing technical communications before earning an LL.B. from Osgoode Hall Law School in Toronto where she also received her LL.M. with a specialty in Criminal Law in 2000. Her practice is primarily devoted to criminal defence at the trial level. She regularly appears in all the courts in the Greater Toronto Area. She has a particular interest in representing clients with mental health issues and has a very high success rate in working with clients to have charges stayed or withdrawn through mental health

Read more

Joanne Capozzi

Joanne Capozzi was called to the bar in Ontario, Canada in 1988. She engaged in defence work as duty counsel for Legal Aid Ontario in 1988.

Read more

Share This Episode

Share On Facebook Share On Twitter Share On LinkedIn

Connect with VoiceAmerica

Download our mobile apps

Read what our hosts are writing about.

