August 13th 2013: Communication Training: All About Video

Are you using video as a marketing piece? Are you using video to communicate to your employees? If not, have you thought about it? In this week's special Communication Training episode of Communication Nation host Jill Schiefelbein gives you in the ins and outs of using video to communicate. We'll talk about why you should consider using video to communicate, how to make these videos come to life (including suggested technological tools to help you), ways to distribute and potentially monetize video and how to deliver effectively on camera. Whether you're currently utilizing video or are thin
