October 10th 2013: How to Step Up and Get Noticed and Giving Feedback Effectively

Ever wonder what it takes to get noticed? Do you want greater responsibility? Do you want to get promoted? If you are a manager ever wonder how to give feedback effectively so your direct reports listen to what you are saying? This week, Deanne takes the mic and talks about Feedback. Feedback when done effectively can help you to get noticed, and can lead to promotions. Feedback is also one skill that helps managers with improving work performance and accountability. Deanne shares the three step process on how to ask for feedback properly, and how to give feedback so the other person listens.
