Afflicted By Addiction

Archives Available

October 22nd 2013: The dark journey of Anne's addiction comes full circle.

Hear how parental permission to drink and a subsequent prescription for Hydrocodone lead a child through 25 years of addiction. Anne Weiser now clean of the drugs that once controlled her every move, bares all. Her dark journey travels from a privileged life, a great career, a marriage and a son to years on the street selling her body and eating from garbage cans. The miracle is that Anne is finally home and has reunited with her family and a son once left abandon for the drugs which owned her very soul.

Anne Weiser

Anne Weiser was a typical teenager who has a story to tell about the slippery slope of addiction. Anne is 42 and celebrated 4 years clean with her 18 year old son. She has overcome a life filled with addiction and the shame that accompanies this disease to share her story and help others understand she and other addicts never chose this path.
