December 12th 2013: Success is Not an Accident

Do you have what it takes to climb the corporate ladder or to be a successful entrepreneur? This weeks show features two amazing women, EVP Connie Lindsey at Northern Trust and best selling author, Rachelle Smith. They each will address the keys to their success. Connie will talk about the four keys to success. First, how important it is for you to define success for yourself, second, be the best technically, third live authentically and lastly have personal courage. Connie also will talk about the importance of building relationships as gateways to climbing the corporate ladder. Second guest
