Dr. Michael Broder asks you to consider a few questions: "What part of your life could be better? Where could you feel happier? How can you operate with a greater level of fulfillment or maturity? Be more motivated? Feel more at peace? Function in a way that's more on target or where you feel more satisfied with your life as it is today? Where do you wish that your contribution to those around you—your family and friends, your community, your profession, or the world—could be greater? Where could you be or at least feel more successful?" Dr. Broder's life work has been to help people identify w
