March 20th 2014: Stop Dental Mercury, It's a Common Cause of Chronic Disease

Karen Palmer of the Pennsylvania Coalition for Mercury-Free Dentistry and Dental Amalgam Mercury Solutions talks with Rob about her personal experience with severe mercury poisoning. Karen, who worked as a dental assistant, is suffering from the effects of mercury exposure in the dentist's office as well as her own exposure through having nine amalgam fillings of her own. Karen is very active in working to educate the public on toxic dentistry and how it can be avoided. Laura Henze Russell talks about her experience, and how you can join Hidden River Health Challenge: A Social Innovation Ent
