March 25th 2014: Practical Advice for Handling Life's Emergencies, Annoyances and Inconveniences

Be honest, would you know what it might mean, or what to do, if the check engine light came on in your car? What if a grease fire started in your kitchen? Would you know what to do if you had a flat tire in the middle of nowhere? What if a child in your care swallowed poison? We live in a society where we make assumptions about help being minutes away, but in reality that isn't always true. Sometimes you just need to know how to take action yourself. Join us as we get some practical advice from two experts, with topics ranging from handling basic car trouble, to home safety and construc
