May 8th 2014: Lights, Camera, Passion

What are you the most passionate about in your life? Did you have to pause and think a bit before you could answer that question? Or did you quickly form a list of things you love and that you love to do? When you get up in the morning are you excited to start your day because you just can't wait to—do whatever it is that "floats your boat?" What gets your heart racing and juices flowing? If you can't answer the question or your list is very short, you won't want to miss Darin Adams talking about passion and the importance passion plays in our lives. An award winning TV personality for over 30
