July 1st 2014: Special Encore Presentation: Workplace Violence Series: Preparing for an Active Shooter Event

Many unfortunate events over the past few months have pushed the discussion of workplace violence into the forefront in a big way. Unfortunately much of the dialogue surrounding the events is used to push a political agenda rather than educate you on what to do. As with every episode, this show will be focused on preparedness, not politics. My guest is Mike Schlosser, PhD, Director of the Police Training Institute for the University of Illinois, and a 30 year law enforcement veteran. During the show, we will review step-by-step the Department of Homeland Security active shooter protocols
