September 11th 2014: Mistakes Women Make and Overcome Career Obstacles

Have you ever wondered what am I doing wrong that I am being over looked for promotions? Have you ever questioned what do I need to be doing so I will be seen as capable to take on greater responsibility and be seen for promotion? Our guests today and experts in answering those questions. Our first guest, Dr Reesa Woolf will address the eight typical mistakes women make in their careers, and what to do about it. She will also address how to speak up at work and command attention and how to deal with the person who interrupts you. She will also how to overcome nervous habits so you come across mo
