October 30th 2014: Communicate for Success

Communication is at the heart of success. Communication is important for the daily operation of your department or company. Good communication skills are needed for sales, developing and leading strong teams, resolving conflict, and negotiations. Unfortunately we sometimes sabotage our success by using poor communication techniques. This week Deanne, who has been training and helping managers for over 20 years in implementing strategic communication solutions to improve bottom line results. She coaches and trains teams, leaders, managers and individuals. This week Deanne will discuss the bar
