Dr. Mary Archer, Breath of Life Arts, lives her life in show business, breathoflifearts@gmail.com. She talks about her life, career, and experience with family caregiving. She explains dance as an art form and her work for Alzheimer's disease. She describes how her students aged 7- 95, some reliant on wheelchairs or walkers, connect through singing and dancing, and explains how she includes dance in classes for people 55 plus. She explains the Heart's Code's importance in thinking about the mind, and how it links to dance as an art form. She highlights how the Center on Aging Health & Humaniti
