April 23rd 2015: The Making of a Mystic

When most of us hear the word "mystic" our minds take us back centuries to find an old bearded man, in a monk's robe living in isolation, devoted to a life of prayer and spirituality. But Paddy Fievet doesn't fit that image and she says there's a modern mystic in each of us. She says that a modern mystic is a woman (or man) who understands life deeper than the ordinary five senses allow and, has not only awakened to her/his profound sense of intuition but utilizes it daily. The modern mystic, according to Fievet, knows her talents—her spiritual gifts—and through appreciation does her best to
