October 8th 2015: Having the Last Say

Many people wonder if they will be remembered after they die and, if they are, what is it that people will remember? "I'm neither rich nor famous," they may think, "and so I'll be forgotten." If you've ever thought this, then make plans now to "Have the Last Say." Alan Gelb suggests, in his book of that title, that you can capture your legacy in one small story. He says "Perhaps you want to convey a deeply held value, describe a passion, reveal a bit of family history that shaped you." He says to write it down! Why not? So you aren't a writer? Are you sure? Give it a shot. Sit down at your com
