October 23rd 2015: High seas adventures, shocking surprises, and daytime drama with Richard Simms

It's our first broadcast from the new Kroll Call studios — and that means that just about anything can happen. Richard Simms returns to Kroll Call to talk about anything that comes to his mind. And while that could mean anything, we're pretty sure it will include his take on the current television season, details on his latest high seas adventures, and the latest drama from the world of soaps (another General Hospital star bolting to The Young and the Restless?). Plus, find out how Dan managed to keep his moving to be closer to his family a secret from them — and how his big reveal alm
