April 26th 2016: Operation Second Chance

We are patriotic citizens committed to serving our wounded, injured and ill combat veterans. We support Veterans and their families by building relationships and identifying and supporting immediate needs and interests. We are dedicated to promoting public awareness of the many sacrifices made by our Armed Forces.

Chris Enders

Chris Enders attended the University of MD, where he earned his B.A. Degree in Communication. While at the University, he contemplated joining the USMC through the OCS program, to follow in the footsteps of many of his family members. After careful consideration, he realized that Marines were not for him, and backed out of the program; After years of working in fields that didn't feel fulfilling, he found himself unemployed due to a companywide layoff.
