Our mission is to take care of the ones who took care of us. We are here to help Veterans in need as well as their family members, whether someone is in need of food, shelter, clothes, and/or something as simple as an outing, we will be there. We will strive to give as much as we can to all who served, as they gave all of themselves to us.

Trisha Bryant, Assistant Executive Director

I am a mother of three that came from very humble beginnings. I wanted to serve my country but it was never to be in my cards for a military position. I Have been through the wringer, but I have never played the victim. I always believed that there is a purpose for everything that one goes through.
